

A hero of our times -The Asian Age

It is still difficult for us to stand the trauma and pain caused by the death of Dhaka North City Corporation (DNCC) mayor Annisul Huq. An enthusiastic, sober and honest leader in a country like Bangladesh.

He streamlined the trouble-ridden areas under DNCC, reduced traffic jam and cleaned up Dhaka city. His work was applauded by all. Annisul Huq won people's hearts by virtue of his honest administration and his crystalline image which is larger than life.

Annisul Huq was a successful businessman and an administrator. His brilliant performance as DNCC mayor overwhelmed all. He tackled the Tejgaon truck stand and some more parts of Dhaka city, illegal settlements and other forms of perils commanded his respect.

A mayor with such uncompromising devotion to his work and a brilliant performance as DNCC mayor overwhelmed all. Such astounding popularity could only be conquered by a leader like Annisul Huq.

Annisul Huq's death reminds us of Greek tragedy where embellished heroes die on a sudden.

Annisul Huq was broadly loved by the people who knew him. He had dreams about a beautiful city and he has achieved it. This is how he won a special spot in the hearts of people.

It's a rare example in our country to be so much loved by people irrespective of political ideologies which he possessed extraordinary worth and qualities. He cherished the vision of rebuilding and reorganizing Dhaka city. Annisul Huq achieved it with his mammoth works. His dedication, patriotism and unique traits have made him immortal.

In a country of 16 crore people, Annisul Huq was an exceptional man scintillating with his own merit and greatness as its mayor. Now questions are arising whether the future guardians of Dhaka city would be so dexterous and honest as Annisul Huq.

The entire nation is shedding tears at the passing away of Annisul Huq which shows how immensely loved he was during his lifetime. Annisul Huq never spoke antagonistically to anyone. Rather he often talked about materializing his dreams. Annisul Huq's ever smiling face can never be forgotten.

If all politicians of our country were devoted and transparent like Annisul Huq, it would have become a golden era. We can learn from Annisul Huq's life. All political leaders of Bangladesh should work with unity moving beyond political boundaries like Annisul Huq did.

Annisul Huq emerged on the business, cultural and political turfs of Bangladesh in a way that is comparable to the likes of Genghis Khan which means "I came, I saw, I conquered."

At a time while the country is inflicted with widespread corruption, political activities devoid of morality, lawlessness and chaos, Annisul Huq appeared to be an oasis of ethical fairness and towering honesty.

Annisul Huq comprehensively enriched the cultural pasture of Bangladesh during the previous decades with Bangladesh Television (BTV). BTV programs hosted by Annisul Huq were exclusively preferred by all viewers.

Annisul Huq's handsome appearance and excellent presentation skills were mind-blowing things to watch on since independence is profoundly indebted to the contributions by Annisul Huq.

Annisul Huq was a symbol of exhilaration and an epitome of vivacity. Today's youths should pick up const people who will be in charge of Dhaka city in his absence should follow his footsteps for the advanced Bangladesh which was Annisul Huq's perennial aim and passion.
